Proceedings: [IN CHAMBERS] ORDER STRIKING MOTIONS AND IMPOSING SANCTIONS

On June 14, 2011, the Court imposed a pre-filing restriction. (Dkt. # 227.) It stated, in part:

A party seeking leave to file a motion or other document may do so by letter to the Court, with copies to all parties. The letter shall be no more than two pages and shall set forth the nature of the motion or document and good cause for its filing. The letter shall have no attachments or exhibits. Upon a showing of good cause, the Court may grant leave to file.

Failure to comply with the letter and spirit of this order may result in sanctions, including the summary denial of improperly requested motions, or other sanctions such as dismissal or striking of the answer.
